- The whole school celebrated St. David's Day with an Eisteddfod on Monday 2nd March. Eva Hanlon-Vanstone was crowned Bard. Take a look at our Eisteddfod on twitter #hsps. The four houses battled well in different competitions Llongyfarchiadau to Castell for winning this year's Eisteddfod. The Barry & District came to school and took some lovely photos not sure when they will appear in the paper but keep looking!
- The children dressed up as a word for World Book Day on Thursday 5th March and enjoyed a day of poems, storytelling and finding out the dressing up words!
- Year 1 & Year 2 after school Sports Club has finished. A new club timetable will be out after Easter.
- All Year 6 parents should have received notification of the secondary place for their child. If you have applied and have not received an email/letter please contact the Admissions Team at the Vale of Glamorgan Council.
