THANK YOU so much for your patience this week. Sandwiches again Monday unfortunately but we should be up and running for Tuesday.

BELONGING HOME LEARNING

Many of the children did an amazing job this week presenting their home learning to the rest of the school. They proudly shared how they belong in their families and communities.

ATTENDANCE

There is an expectation in all Vale schools that children will attend at least 90% of the time. Where this has not been the case for the last half term, letters were sent home yesterday. Please ensure your child attends every day and is on time. School starts at 8.50am.
